

Sherman Welcomed Home. The homecoming of Congressman sion of such a demonstration as has candidate for the vice presidency was a non-partisan affair, and to a great extent personal, for the congressman's recovery from his recent somewhat alarming illness gave added reason for public rejoicing upon his safe return. Mr. Sherman, accompanied by Mrs. Sherman and Dr. Carter, reached here on the New York express from the west Thursday evening. As his train frew into the station bands played, fireworks were set off and and church chimes rang out. In Baggs square and every other spot adjacent to the New York Central station thousands of persons were crowded. Mr. Sherman stepped from the train slowly. very well. A monster procession formed in the vicinity of the station escorted the candidate to his home.
